"Sit by the fireplace to take in spectacular views of nearby mountains through the tall windows. Rooms come equipped with any amenity you might need, and they're the only place around where you get a full cooked-to-order breakfast. They also offer car rentals; free pickup from the train station if you're renting a car." --Fodor's Travel, 2017

The Millers have accurate and important information about Denali National Park. Their tour desk service provides savings on many important Denali activities. Personal service and attention are given to their guests.

Millers have two residents Scottish Terriers who help entertain guests and are not allowed in guests' bedrooms or the kitchen area. The house is decorated with hunting trophies and Alaskan art and books. Large windows provide great views of Mt. Healy.
